

London, England

A view of some of the most famous structures in London, England. Trucks and double-decker buses cross the busy Westminster Bridge over the Thames River, while pedestrians fill the walkways on both sides. A boat is passing below the bridge. The Palace of Westminster, where both Houses of Parliament reside, dominates the background. Victoria Tower, to the left, houses the records of both Houses and serves as the doorway used by a monarch when addressing Parliament. The Clock Tower contains the famous bell Big Ben, (1923).
