

Chagford (Devon County), England

An Old Devonshire house in Chagford, England. The house has a thatched roof and a brick chimney, and is surrounded by a stone wall, with various trees and smaller plants in a yard. A woman in black clothing is visible in the doorway. A road runs along the foreground, and adjacent houses can be seen in the background along it. Chagford is a small town in Devon County, traditionally home to the wool and tin trades, (1910).
