

N.Y. Near Tappan, Old Stone House, Major Andre's Prison.

Exterior view of an old stone house near Tappan, New York, where Major Andre was held prisoner during the Revolutionary War. Steps lead directly from the dirt road to the front porch of the house. Three boys pose near the house, one standing on the road, one sitting on a grassy bank on the roadside, and one standing next to the white, picket fence on the right side of the house.
