

John Brown Grave

View of what may be the home of the abolitionist John Brown (1800-1859) in North Elba, Essex County in the Adirondack Mountains. The original caption reads "John Brown Grave." The date is unrecorded, but probably ca. 1900-1920. This image was created to record the miscellaneous activities of the New York State Forest, Fish and Game Commission, Conservation Commission, or Conservation Department.
