Platform Adopted by League to Enforce Peace at the "Win the War for Permanent Peace" Convention

PLATFORM

Adopted by

LEAGUE TO ENFORCE PEACE

At the "Win the War for Permanent Peace" Convention

Philadelphia, May 17, 1918

Assembled in a great Win-the-War Convention in this city of its birth, the League to Horlores Peace ms in pledge to these two supreme daties, each essential to the other and both essential to the cause of treedom:

L.—To make the world safe, by the defeat of Germany and German militarism

II.-To keep the world safe by a League of Nations.

SUPPORT THE PRESIDENT

The Lengue to Referce Peace pledges instituted support to the communiteries-third of sur, the President of the United States, and to all others in authority in all measures for vision ary power of the Kalsee, realizing that such victory is the primary condition of lasting passary basis for a League of Netions.

The Lengue's standing for international law and justice, declares until Germany is overcommented to the Community of the United States and the other free nations, with which this countright with communication for a diversion general communication for a diversion general.

WARNING AGAINST A GERMAN PEACE.

WARNING AGAINST A GERMAN PEACE.

And, approbessive of the larse of an incontinitive point, which would see many as corritons their dennision of Central Energy and seems a place to deem of the world, the League feels that our people absentle the forwarmed; to transle people of the seem of the world, the League feels that our people absentle the forwarmed; to transle people on an element of the feel of the seems of the feel of the seems and Francis to to other the Treation to India; even to refugación distinitions comis kind of autonomy to the surfaces recent of Cartard and East like highly solutions, and if we are not proposed to understand what it mises would be kept no better than those broints in the past. Autonomy of enisonton for the strengthening of Germany; until the had estated of the resulted and the seem of a succeptant in South America on a meen baverable occasion. Such a separation of a translette of the farmer colonies of a succeptant in South America on a meen baverable occasion. Such as present on the made.

COOPERATION OF LABOR

THE ULTIMATE AIM

Our fathers were wise became they looked the facts of their day in the face, discerning clearly sit time, and we shall follow their example by doing the same in our day. The time has come to take par in a Langue of Nations to origination on enduring peace here and chewhere. With surpose, with constancy in affart and sagnetty in action, we must faith the work we have bey

Platform adopted by the League to Enforce Peace at the "Win the War for Permanent Peace" Convention on May 17, 1918 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Identifier

NYSA_A4234-78_B2_F2_LeaguePeace

Alternate Identifier DMS ID Number: 177476

Date

May 1917

Repository

New York State Archives

Source

New York State Archives. New York (State). Education Dept. Division of Archives and History. New York State Defense Council. Correspondence Files, 1917-1918. Series A4234-78, Box 2, Folder 2.

Rights

This image is provided for education and research purposes. Rights may be reserved. Responsibility for securing permissions to distribute, publish, reproduce or other use rest with the user. For additional information see our Copyright and Use Statement

More From This Series

Defense Council correspondence files

Geographic Locations

Pennsylvania (is associated with)