

Pamphlet Advocating Teaching English to Drafted Men

Pamphlet from the YMCA advocating teaching English to and offering education about the issues of the war for drafted men, 1918. The pamphlet encourages helping soldiers to learn English before they are shipped overseas so that they could understand orders and understand their fellow soldiers. The pamphlet was really aimed at the people who would be setting up and teaching the course. There is a list of suggested activities to do to help make the class run more smoothly and efficiently
