

World War II - Hair Salvage Letter

Hair Salvage Letter. According to the federal War Production Board, human hair was used in the making of gun sights, microscopes and other precision instruments, as well as sensitive humidity elements on meteorological instruments used by the military during World War II.

Identifier

NYSA_A4351-78_B2_HairSalvage

Alternate Identifier

DMS ID Number: 1441

Date

April 2 1943

Repository

New York State Archives

Source

New York State Archives. New York State War Council. Salvage Division. Federal advisory and instructional releases and promotional material, 1942-1945. Series A4351-78, Box 2, Hair Salvage.

Rights

This image is provided for education and research purposes. Rights may be reserved. Responsibility for securing permissions to distribute, publish, reproduce or other use rest with the user. For additional information see our Copyright and Use Statement

More From This Series

War Council Salvage Division federal advisory and instructional releases and promotional material

Geographic Locations

New York (is associated with)