

Site of the Treaty of Big Tree in Geneseo, New York

Photograph of the site of the Treaty of Big Tree in Geneseo, New York. The Treaty of Big Tree was held between the Seneca Nation and the United States, negotiated from August 20 - September 16, 1797. The treaty opened up territory west of the Genesee River and established reservations, annuities, and hunting and fishing rights for the Seneca.

Identifier

NYSA_A0245-77_Livingston_B07_12

Alternate Identifier

DMS ID Number: 185110

Date

1936 – circa 1963

Repository

New York State Archives

Source

New York State Archives. New York (State). Education Dept. Division of Archives and History. Photographs of historic sites and structures, 1936-1963. Series A0245-77. Livingston County.

Rights

This image is provided for education and research purposes. Rights may be reserved. Responsibility for securing permissions to distribute, publish, reproduce or other use rest with the user. For additional information see our Copyright and Use Statement

More From This Series

Education Department Division of Archives and History photographs of historic sites and structures

Geographic Locations

Livingston County (is associated with)