

The "French Castle" at Fort Niagara in Youngstown, New York

The "French Castle" at Fort Niagara, in Youngstown, New York. The castle is the oldest building both in the fort and in the Eastern interior of North America. It was designed to resemble a French trading house in order to calm the suspicions of the Iroquois.

Identifier

NYSA_A0245-77_Niagara_B10_13

Alternate Identifier

DMS ID Number: 185189

Date

1936 – circa 1963

Repository

New York State Archives

Source

New York State Archives. New York (State). Education Dept. Division of Archives and History. Photographs of historic sites and structures, 1936-1963. Series A0245-77. Niagara County.

Rights

This image is provided for education and research purposes. Rights may be reserved. Responsibility for securing permissions to distribute, publish, reproduce or other use rest with the user. For additional information see our Copyright and Use Statement

More From This Series

Photographs of historic sites and structures

Geographic Locations

Niagara County (is associated with)