

Chenango Canal Survey, Greene showing Barnard and Hatch and Chenango River

This is an ink, wash and charcoal map of a section of the Chenango Canal in Greene. It shows the Chenango River, the canal running straight then taking a 90 degree turn to the right, an aqueduct that runs the canal over the river, two bridges, a building and two unidentified roads. The red lines indicate courses and distances. The blue lines indicate canal right-of-way. The map also shows the properties of Barnard and Hatch, Cameron and Peter Lansing.
