

Stone Structure at Saratoga Springs

View of a small stone structure on the New York State Reservation (now Saratoga Spa State Park) near Saratoga Springs. The exact purpose of the structure is unknown. It has a large window covered with netting, so may perhaps be housing an animal. Two young girls are sitting on a bench nearby. The date is unrecorded, but is likely August 1918. This image was created to record the Saratoga-related activities of the New York State Conservation Commission.
