

Syracuse State Fair Exhibit; fish, pheasant, grouse and deer exhibit

Exhibit on game birds on display at the 1936 State Fair in Syracuse, N.Y. The exhibit includes a section on grouse breeding and pheasant feeding as well as a small game about predatory birds. The Conservation Department had an extensive public education program which included not only exhibits, but also demonstrations, forestry tours and motion pictures. This image was created to record the public education efforts of the Conservation Department.
