

Woman in white in front of a large tree

View of a tree, possibly an elm, possibly in Schoharie County. In the center of the image, the thick trunk bifurcates. At the base of the tree stands a dark-haired woman wearing a white blouse and skirt, and sensible black shoes. Encircling the periphery of the yard is a picket fence. This tree may have been photographed for something called the "biggest tree in New York" campaign. This image was created to record forestry and parks activities of the New York State Forest, Fish and Game Commission, Conservation Commission, or Conservation Department.
