

Fish Rack (Oneida)

Four men either catching or releasing hatchery-bred fish at a "fish rack" on a stream. Three other men in suits watch from a car. A horse pulling a wagon stands nearby. This appears to be connected to the Oneida State Fish Hatchery in Constantia, Oswego County (established 1897). The date is unrecorded, but may be the 1920s. This image was created to record the game hatchery activities of the New York State Conservation Commission or Conservation Department.
