1. The post office address of the claimant is Dr. Aaron R. Green, New York 10022.
2. This claim is for damages and expenses suffered by the claimant due to the actions, both negligent, intentional and otherwise of the State of New York, in connection with the riots at the Attica Correctional Facility, Attica, New York which commenced on or about September 9, 1971 and terminated on or about September 13, 1971.
3. The claim arose under the following facts and circumstances:

On or about September 9, 1971 and at all times herein relevant, the plaintiff was an inmate at the Attica State Correctional Facility (at present he is an inmate at the Green Haven Correctional Facility).

On or about that date, a riot occurred in which several hostages were taken by certain inmates and the inmates obtained control over a large portion of the Attica complex. On the morning of the riot plaintiff was attending his usual job in the tailor shop of said facility. Sometime in the early morning of that date an inmate came to the tailor shop and stated that a riot had begun. In the confusion that followed, plaintiff
