

"John Feister, Member of Company L, Who Recently Arrived in France, Says There Are Plenty of Girls and Liquor in Port of Debarkation"

In a letter to a friend, a soldier from Elmira, NY, John Feister, gives his impression of life at a French seaport. He talks briefly about the historic buildings from the Napoleonic era, women and liquor, a prison camp and other things.

Identifier

NYSA_A0412-78_B04_F17_Feister

Alternate Identifier

DMS ID Number: 177573

Date

June 27 1918

Repository

New York State Archives

Source

New York State Archives. New York (State). Education Dept. Division of Archives and History. World War I veterans' service data and photographs, 1917-1938. Series A0412-78, Box 4, Folder 17.

Rights

This image is provided for education and research purposes. Rights may be reserved. Responsibility for securing permissions to distribute, publish, reproduce or other use rest with the user. For additional information see our Copyright and Use Statement

More From This Series

World War I veterans' service data and photographs

Geographic Locations

France (is associated with)