Speech by Elmer Carter, New York State War Council

This is no time for quibbling. This is the time for action of everyone to and I arise and Pascion. I orover wipe them from the face of the morti. It is crisical for a great descerso/ set to use its full our power and labor power, military and productive. The United States of america is not using full productive money because there still exists rapial productive and religious bigotry and other color discrimination in the war offert. A study of a report of the United States Employment Service of his State of New York for the month of agril indicates that as instantificant number of $ agrees up warkers, 11% needles and trades. 35 kers been inducted into into the ver imindustry. In a report to the Mar Council, it was found, I am larger to may, that the integration of monon in training for defense industry is being sentiorated contain. Records conting a to come, heaven, to an office of adestal of E agrees to merk in many defense budgetries in the styte of Nor York. This is both a tracks and dispuriting elimities. It can be cared by weren and non here represented, who are united an orders to some the Materia grain of labora I hope so will go forth with only one what waint sat only one ofte. The brimph of the popula of Resale, fittee, blates dates and ingland over factors To make set be confushed of the fact that vertiers are flighting tide and. Anthers are dying by the thousands on the head's flable. Only workers, blade and width hopevier, can in the end whos mut discrimin which and rectal Migrature telling these things are decknown, Sowarsty casted with Trevers groups must not be one have the most be the reletings of the administrations

Speech by Elmer Carter, member of the New York State War Council, arguing that racial discrimination in hiring by defense industries hurt the war effort, 1942.

Identifier

NYSA_A4278-78_B8_F411_001

Alternate Identifier

DMS ID Number: 185038

Date

June 27 1942

Contributor

Carter, Elmer

Repository

New York State Archives

Source

New York State Archives, New York State War Council. Committee on Discrimination in Employment. Minutes and investigations files, 1941-1945. Series A4278-78, Box 8, Folder 411.

Rights

This image is provided for education and research purposes. Rights may be reserved. Responsibility for securing permissions to distribute, publish, reproduce or other use rest with the user. For additional information see our Copyright and Use Statement

More From This Series

War Council Committee on Discrimination in Employment minutes and investigations files

Geographic Locations

New York (is associated with)