

Dutch colonial council minutes, 2-15 November 1646

Court proceedings. John Dolling vs. Michael Taintor, merchant on Mr. Whiting's bark, case of attachment ; plaintiff having, as security for Mr. Whiting, paid John Haynes and Evert Cornelissen, pursuant to judgment of 2d August, defendant is condemned to pay plaintiff, with costs. [1646]; Court proceedings. Augustyn Heerman, attorney for Haye Jansen, skipper of ship St. Jacob, vs. Martin Arentsen ; action to recover passage money and board ; defendant proves that he worked as carpenter and seaman during the voyage hither, in return for which he was to have his passage ; judgment for defendant. [1646]; Court proceedings. Augustyn Heerman vs. Adam Roelantsen, for the passage and board of himself and son ; defendant proves that skipper Haye gave him his passage on condition that he worked as a seaman, and allowed his son his board because he said prayers ; judgment for defendant. [1646]

Identifier

NYSA_A1809-78_V04_p275

Alternate Identifier

DMS ID Number: 184310

Date

November 2 – 15 1646

Source

New York State Archives. New York (Colony). Council. Dutch colonial council minutes, 1638-1665. Series A1809-78. Volume 4, page 275.

Special Project

Mutual Cultural Heritage Project

More From This Series

Dutch colonial council minutes