

Granville, France

A pottery seller with a donkey on a brick street in Granville, France. The man is carrying several pots in his hands and another under his arm. The donkey is laden with sticks and at least one additional pot. A boy on the right is also carrying a small container. The arm of another person and a kiosk can be seen behind the boy, and numerous buildings are visible in the background. Granville is a small town in the department of Manche in Normandy, n.d.
