

Ephesus, Asia Minor - View of Ruins from Theatre Terrace

Asia Minor, Ephesus. View of ruins from Theatre terrace: paved street lined with broken columns in foreground, library beyond. A man is standing in front of a row of rubble, and a mountain is visible in the background. Ephesus was the capital of the Roman province of Asia Minor, and was home to many theaters and a library that was considered the equal of the famous library at Alexandria, (1912).
