

Indian deed to Lewis Morris and others for land south of the Mohawk river near the Noses, 1722

Indian deed to Lewis Morris and others, of a certain tract of meadow and wood land on the south side of the Maquaes river, about 10 miles above Fort Hunter, beginning from the west side of a hill by the said river side, called by the indians Kanendahhere, by the Christians lately called Antony's nose and so runs up along the said river to the west side of a certain creek called Onnezereah, from thence goes into the woods the depth of four English miles, carrying the same breadth all the way into ye woods from the river side.

Identifier

NYSA_A0272-78_V08_p189

Alternate Identifier

DMS ID Number: 184810

Date

September 3 1722

Repository

New York State Archives

Source

New York State Archives. Dept. of State. Applications for land grants, 1642-1803. A0272-78, Volume 8, page 189.

Rights

This image is provided for education and research purposes. Rights may be reserved. Responsibility for securing permissions to distribute, publish, reproduce or other use rest with the user. For additional information see our Copyright and Use Statement

More From This Series

New York State Department of State applications for land grants