

Indian deed to Lewis Morris and others for land south of the Mohawk river and islands 1722

Indian deed to Lewis Morris and others, of a certain tract of meadow and wood land on the south side of the Maquaes river about thirteen miles above Fort Hunter, beginning at the river side on the west side of a certain fountain called loghnowreda, which lies about a quarter of a mile from the river, and so runs along the river to a hill called Tsidiosoweny you, which comes down to the river, being about three English miles above loghnowreda aforesaid, thence runs into the woods to the depth of four English miles, carrying the same breadth all the way into the woods as it hath by the said river side, as also the islands in the river over against the said meadow land.

Identifier

NYSA_A0272-78_V08_p193

Alternate Identifier

DMS ID Number: 184812

Date

October 3 1722

Repository

New York State Archives

Source

New York State Archives. Dept. of State. Applications for land grants, 1642-1803. A0272-78, Volume 8, page 193.

Rights

This image is provided for education and research purposes. Rights may be reserved. Responsibility for securing permissions to distribute, publish, reproduce or other use rest with the user. For additional information see our Copyright and Use Statement

More From This Series

Applications for land grants