

Indian deed to Jacob Frederick Lawyer, William Bauch and Heromimus Kreisler,

1744

Indian deed to Jacob Frederick Lawyer, William Bauch and Heronimus Kreisler, of a certain tract of land, lying in the south and south west of Schoharie, in the county of Albany, and begins at the foot of a hill called Furberg, then with a straight line to the north east corner of a patent granted to Capt. Edward Clarke, then westerly along the line of the aforesaid land to Schoharie creek river, then one mile more westerly into the woods from said river, then northerly to a creek, called by the Indians, Oneyagine, and by the Christians, Stone creek, then one mile more northerly from said Stone creek, then easterly to the south west corner of the great patent of Schoharie, granted to Myndert Schuyler, Peter Vonbrugh and others, including all the lands on both sides of Schoharie river, between the before mentioned patents, that were not sold before (Schoharie county).;Certificate of Johannes Lawyer, that the Indians received full payment from Jacob Frederick Lawyer, William Bauch and Heronimus Kreisler.

Identifier

NYSA_A0272-78_V15_p015

Alternate Identifier

DMS ID Number: 184845

Date

April 17 1744

Repository

New York State Archives

Source

New York State Archives. Dept. of State. Applications for land grants, 1642-1803. A0272-78, Volume 15, page 15.

Rights

This image is provided for education and research purposes. Rights may be reserved. Responsibility for securing permissions to distribute, publish, reproduce or other use rest with the user. For additional information see our Copyright and Use Statement

More From This Series

New York State Department of State applications for land grants