

Indian deed to Bartholomew Vroman and others of land in the county of Albany,

1742

Indian deed to Bartholomew Vroman and others, of a tract of land, in the county of Albany, beginning by a certain creek, known and called by the Indians Iutrachogte, where the said creek comes into another which runs westerly, and from thence up and along the said creeck, until it comes to a certain hill, known and called by the Indians Janoentago, and from thence along the said hill, and from thence to the aforesaid creek, where it first begun.

Identifier

NYSA_A0272-78_V13_p126

Alternate Identifier

AMS Creator ID Number:

Date

August 30 1742

Repository

New York State Archives

Source

New York State Archives. Dept. of State. Applications for land grants, 1642-1803. A0272-78, Volume 13, page 126.

Rights

This image is provided for education and research purposes. Rights may be reserved. Responsibility for securing permissions to distribute, publish, reproduce or other use rest with the user. For additional information see our Copyright and Use Statement

More From This Series

New York State Department of State applications for land grants