

Large Second Growth White Pine, Grown on Land Cultivated 40 Years Ago

View of an elderly man standing next to a large white pine tree (Pinus strobus) that is growing on a former farm field returning to forest. He is holding what may be a ruler up to the tree. The date and the location are unknown, but the time is probably ca. 1900-1920. This image was created to record the forestry activities of the New York State Forest, Fish and Game Commission, Conservation Commission, or Conservation Department.
