

Governor Roosevelt Visits Two Reforested Areas at Pleasant Brook and Cherry Valley, Otsego Co., Abandoned Farm House

View of Governor Franklin Delano Roosevelt (in office 1929-1933) visiting areas that have been reforested at Pleasant Brook in Roseboom and at Cherry Valley in Cherry Valley, both in Otsego County. Roosevelt is sitting in an open car parked next to what appears to be a farmhouse. Two other men are standing by the car. This image was created to record the reforestation activities of the New York State Conservation Department.
