

Historic Marker, Regarding Teddy Roosevelt Gaining Presidency in North Creek

View of a plaque set into a boulder near North Creek in Johnsburg, Warren County in the Adirondack Mountains. It marks the spot where Theodore Roosevelt became president of the United States at 2:15 AM on September 14, 1901 upon the death of William McKinley. The photograph is undated, but the marker was erected in 1908. This image was created to record the historic site activities of the New York State Conservation Department.
