

Donald Jamieson's Essay

In 1917, the New York State Education Department began a program that allowed students between the ages of 16 and 18 in good academic standing to sign up and become Farm Cadets. Many teens jumped at the chance to become a Farm Cadet, and to leave their homes in the cities and towns and to assist with the war effort by replacing the laborers who had enlisted in the military and gone to fight overseas. From April-September, students worked on farms throughout the state and, in order to receive academic credit for their contribution, wrote an account of their time spent as a Farm Cadet.

;In this essay entitled, "How I Spent My Summer," Donald Jamieson tells of his time working as a Farm Cadet.

Identifier

NYSA_A3112-77_B3_F088_Jamieson

Alternate Identifier

DMS ID Number: 177379

Date

circa 1917

Repository

New York State Archives

Source

New York State Archives. New York (State). Education Dept. Division of Archives & History. Administrative records & manuals relating to military training enrollments & the Farm Cadets, 1917-1921. NYS Military Training Commission. Series A3112-77, Box 3, Folder 88.

Rights

This image is provided for education and research purposes. Rights may be reserved. Responsibility for securing permissions to distribute, publish, reproduce or other use rest with the user. For additional information see our Copyright and Use Statement

More From This Series

Administrative records and manuals relating to military training enrollments and the Farm Cadet Corps

Geographic Locations

Syracuse (is associated with)