

Smyth Home and Tavern located in Fort Edward, New York

Smyth Home and Tavern in Fort Edward, New York. This house was built by Patt Smyth in 1773. It was built from salvaged lumber when Fort Edward was dismantled. The house served as headquarters for General John Stark of New Hampshire during the American Revolution.

Identifier

NYSA_A0245-77_Washington_B22_26

Alternate Identifier

DMS ID Number: 185321

Date

1936 – circa 1963

Repository

New York State Archives

Source

New York State Archives. New York (State). Education Dept. Division of Archives and History. Photographs of historic sites and structures, 1936-1963. Series A0245-77. Washington County.

Rights

This image is provided for education and research purposes. Rights may be reserved. Responsibility for securing permissions to distribute, publish, reproduce or other use rest with the user. For additional information see our Copyright and Use Statement

More From This Series

Photographs of historic sites and structures

Geographic Locations

Washington County (is associated with)