

Letter from Ann Leake to John G. Leake and Robert W. Leake, 1769

Letter from Ann Leake to her stepsons informing them on how her health has improved, and instructing them to "remember me too in your prayers as I always do you." She told them how much she missed them, and indicated that she was unsure as to when they would see each other again. She also mentioned a gentlemen who was providing them with lodging in Newbury.
