

Copy of a letter from Robert Leake, Sr. to Robert W. Leake and John G. Leake, circa 1770-1774

Handwritten letter entitled "copy of a letter from my honorable parent at N York." The letter was primarily written to offer advice, saying "I apprehend you think yourselves near manhood and warn his son against the 'evils incident to youth...'" There is no date, and it is addressed to Robert Leake despite the fact that the letter is intended for both brothers.
