

N. Y. State Factory Commission Personal Schedule (Confidential)

The image shows a two-page form titled "N. Y. State Factory Commission Personal Schedule (Confidential)". The form is divided into two columns, each with a heading "PERSONAL INFORMATION" and "FACTORY INFORMATION". The left column contains questions about the employee's personal details, including name, address, birth date, and education. The right column contains questions about the employee's work history, including the name of the factory, the date of employment, and the nature of the work. The form is filled out with handwritten information.

A two-page Factory Investigating Commission's questionnaire requesting employee's personal information. Questions address the employee's work history, wages, education, training, health, housing situation, expenses, and more. The form was part of the Commission's wage investigation.
