

Women tending machines - material (?) on floor, no. 1

Four women and a man stand near machines in what may be a spinning room of a textile mill in Utica, New York. The woman in the foreground is handling a length of white material at a cylindrical machine suspended from the ceiling while similar material lies at her feet. Additional pieces of white material hang on the brick walls in the background. This image may be described in #55 of "Photographs Taken by Factory Commission in 1912."
