

Day After Tomorrow, 1960s

Educational film from the 1960s presented by the New York State Department of Health and produced by the Office of Public Health Education. The film is geared towards the New York State workforce and promotes the importance of medical checkups as part of healthy living and planning for retirement. Includes footage of the Governor Alfred E. Smith State Office Building in Albany, NY.

Identifier

NYSA_B1059-87_mpf16-1960s-aa-aa

Date

1960s

Repository

New York State Archives

Source

New York State Archives. New York (State). Division of Public Health Education. Education motion picture film, "Day after Tomorrow" ca. 1965. B1059-87, Box 1.;16mm film; black and white; sound

Rights

This image is provided for education and research purposes. Rights may be reserved. Responsibility for securing permissions to distribute, publish, reproduce or other use rest with the user. For additional information see our Copyright and Use Statement

More From This Series

Educational motion picture film, "Day after Tomorrow"