

Local Health Problems in War Industry Areas, 1940s

A film presented by the New York State Department of Health showcasing the health problems or emergencies that can happen in a community and how to resolve them. The film focuses on migrant workers and squatters' camps in Seneca County, New York in which issues of clean drinking water, sanitation and immunization arise. The towns of Ovid and Waterloo are featured.

Identifier

NYSA_A4289-78_mpf16_1940s-aa-dd

Date

1940s

Repository

New York State Archives

Source

New York State Archives. New York State War Council. Citizen assistance and preparation films. 1942-1943. A4289-78, Box 1.;16mm film; black and white; sound

Rights

This image is provided for education and research purposes. Rights may be reserved. Responsibility for securing permissions to distribute, publish, reproduce or other use rest with the user. For additional information see our Copyright and Use Statement

More From This Series

Citizen assistance and preparation films