

Cairo, Egypt - Water Peddler

A man in slippers and a turban peddles water from a large jug on his back in Cairo, Egypt. He carries a bowl in his hand. A boy stands nearby next to a wall, while several people hurry by in the background. Both the man and the boy are wearing robes and a turban. The man wears shoes, but the boy is barefoot. Water sellers were, and still are, a common sight on the streets of many large Middle Eastern cities, (1928).

Identifier

NYSA_A3045-78_12303

Alternate Identifier

DMS ID Number: 426

Negative Numbers: 12303

Date

1928

Repository

New York State Archives

Source

New York State Archives. New York (State). Education Dept. Division of Visual Instruction. Instructional lantern slides, ca. 1856-1939. A3045, No. 12303.

Rights

This image is provided for education and research purposes. Rights may be reserved. Responsibility for securing permissions to distribute, publish, reproduce or other use rest with the user. For additional information see our Copyright and Use Statement

More From This Series

Division of Visual Instruction instructional lantern slides

Geographic Locations

Egypt (is associated with)