

Waterhole being constructed for fire protection by S 126

Once finished, this waterhole will aid the fire suppression efforts in the forests near Centerville, N.Y. This waterhole was dug and lined with stone by the Civilian Conservation Corps, Camp S-126, located near Centerville from 1935-1941. This image was created to record the reforestation work of the Civilian Conservation Corps under the supervision of the New York State Conservation Department.
