The Four Hundred and Sixty-sixth Meeting of the State Athletic Commission was held at the office of the Commission, 949 Broadway, New York, Tuesday, January 3, 1928.

Commissioners present, James A. Farley, Chairman, William Muldoon, George E. Brower; Deputy Commissioners Edward Curry, Daniel H. Skilling, John T. McNeill; Secretary Burt Stand.

The meeting was called to order at 10:30 A.M.

The minutes of the previous meeting were adopted but not read.

On motion duly made, seconded and approved, the report of the Board of Deputies was accepted.

On recommendation of Chairman Farley, Eddie Long, manager and second, be and he hereby is suspended pending a hearing in connection with his conduct in Sam Taylor's corner at Madison Square Garden December 30.

Tony Palacola and David Lustansky, managers, appeared in connection with complaint of Palacola against Lustansky regarding the management of Andy Martin, boxer. Lustansky informed the Commission that he was willing either to buy or sell his interest in Martin and the Commission thanked him for his assistance in adjusting the matter and in a short time Lustansky returned and informed the Commission that he has purchased the sole managing control of Martin from Palacola for eight hundred dollars.

Jess McMahon, matchmaker Madison Square Garden, appeared requesting permission to stage forty-three rounds of boxing at the Garden January 6, and the same was approved with the understanding that the show must start promptly at 8 P.M.
