

Group in Native American Costume

This group has donned elaborate, and somewhat fanciful, Native American costumes for a presentation at the fiftieth anniversary celebration of the Conservation Department. The celebration commemorates the fifty year anniversary of the law which established the Forest Commission, the ancestor of the Conservation Department, as well as the Adirondack Forest Preserve. This image was created to record the festivities sponsored by the Conservation Department commemorating the anniversary.

Identifier

NYSA_14297-87_4052

Alternate Identifier

DMS ID Number: 150755

Date

1935

Repository

New York State Archives

Source

New York State Archives, New York (State). Conservation Dept. Photographic prints and negatives, [ca. 1904-1949], 14297-87, SARA No. 4052.

Rights

This image is provided for education and research purposes. Rights may be reserved. Responsibility for securing permissions to distribute, publish, reproduce or other use rest with the user. For additional information see our Copyright and Use Statement

More From This Series

Conservation Department photographic prints and negatives

Geographic Locations

Essex County (is associated with)