

Louisiana Purchase Exposition

This is the interior of a replica log cabin set up by the New York State Conservation Department as part of an exhibit on forestry. In addition to the bed and canoe converted to shelving, a ribbon and certificate hang from the back wall. These exhibits were on display during the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, also known as the St. Louis World's Fair, held in Saint Louis, Missouri in 1904. This image was created to record a series of exhibits created by the New York State Conservation Department.
