

Attica Victims Apply Pressure

STATE & LOCAL NEWS

FRIDAY, JANUARY 26, 2001

Man, 27, arrested in slaying of pastor

Attica victims apply pressure

Guards, families want more than $500,000 state is offering.

WORKERS' COMPENSATION

ALBANY — Jim Vickers had four children, a seventh-grade son and a 10-year-old daughter, when he was shot and killed in the Monday morning riot at the Attica Correctional Institute. His widow, Mrs. Vickers, says she was told by the guards that the state was offering her $500,000 for her husband's death. She says she was told that the state was offering her $500,000 for her husband's death. She says she was told that the state was offering her $500,000 for her husband's death.

KEEPING OUT OF THE WIND

Surveys: More will s

Photocopy of newspaper article published in the January 26, 2001 issue of the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle concerning compensation sought by the group known as The Forgotten Victims of Attica. Page two of the scanned image is a near duplicate of the first page.

Identifier

NYSA_W0100-21_00016048

Source

"New York State Department of Law special investigation files relating to the Attica uprising, circa 1971-2001. W0100-21."

Rights

This record is not part of the New York State Archives' collection and is presented on our project partner's behalf for educational use only. Please contact the home repository for information on copyright and reproductions.

More From This Series

Department of Law special investigation files relating to the Attica uprising