

Boy Scout encampment on an island owned by the State, Lake George

View of Boy Scouts lined up near a table getting food at their camp, Camp Klava, on an island in Lake George in Warren County. There are two signs in the background, one saying Camp Klava Troop 19 BSA, and another saying State Land. A few tents can be seen on the island where the boys sleep at night. This image was created to record the forest landscapes-related activities of the New York State Conservation Commission.
